

The Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles is committed to keeping you informed about critical issues in estate planning and charitable giving and enhancing the services that you provide to your philanthropic clients. Join industry experts for a complimentary, in-depth series of breakfast programs throughout 2010, and receive continuing education credit while deepening your knowledge of estate planning, trusts, and private foundations. You'll also learn about recent changes in the law and what they might mean for your clients.

Please feel free to share this invitation with any colleagues who may be interested, or direct them to the invitation posted on our website at www.jewishfoundationla.org.

MEET professional experts who will share insights in the areas of estate and charitable planning.

ACQUIRE practical tools for better engaging your philanthropic clients.

NETWORK with like-minded colleagues.

Established in 1954, the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles is the largest manager of charitable assets and the leader in planned giving solutions for Greater Los Angeles Jewish philanthropists. The Foundation currently manages assets of $700 million (unaudited, as of 12/31/09) and ranks among the 12 largest Los Angeles foundations. In 2009, The Foundation and its nearly 1,200 donors distributed $61 million in grants to hundreds of organizations with programs that span the range of philanthropic giving.
