Introduction

Having a revocable living trust and a will as part of your estate plan is important, yet many people do not maintain updated documents that reflect significant life changes and outline their present wishes. Preparing your estate planning documents ahead of time, and reviewing them regularly, can prevent misunderstandings later and allows your survivors to sort through complex issues with greater ease, clarity, and harmony. To assist with your estate planning, the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles is pleased to offer you this Estate Planning Workbook, designed to help you gather and organize all pertinent estate planning information in one place before you contact your attorney.

An estate plan ensures that your assets will be transferred according to your wishes upon passing.

Here are three reasons you want to have an estate plan:

- 1. If you die without estate planning documents, your property is distributed to relatives according to state laws, regardless of your wishes.
- 2. The state would be responsible for appointing a guardian from among your relatives for any minor children. By executing estate planning documents, you can be assured that custody of minor children, your wishes for your property and other assets, and any other specific wishes you delineate will be carried out according to your plan.
- 3. A revocable living trust and a will as part of your estate plan is the best way to ensure that your philanthropic values will be administered according to your wishes, and that your legacy will continue well into the future.

We hope this workbook will serve as a useful tool to help you organize and prepare your information.

For more information about estate planning, please contact us at 323.761.8704 or development@jewishfoundationla.org.

Established in 1954, the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles manages $1.25 billion of assets entrusted to it by over 1,300 families. The Foundation partners with donors to shape meaningful philanthropic strategies, magnify the impact of giving, and build enduring charitable legacies. Over the past 25 years, The Foundation has distributed over $1 billion in grants to thousands of nonprofits across a diverse spectrum.

PLAN YOUR ESTATE DISTRIBUTION

You do not need to describe every item of your personal or real property in your will. However, if there is some specific asset that you want to go to a certain individual in your living will or trust, list it below. You may include individuals, other than nearest relatives, whom you wish to include in your estate planning. Also, if you wish to leave a specific sum of money to a person or charity, state the amount and the name.

Person	Address	Relationship	Item, Property, or Sum of Money	Locations of Asset

CHARITIES

Charity Name	Address	Telephone	Amount
			$

After the specific bequests (if any), the simplest way to divide the residue of your estate is by percentages. Name the person or charity you wish to remember, and then state what percentage of the total remaining amount of your estate each is to receive.
